Dear Parents,

F.A.I. Competition

The F.A.I. Primary Schools Football will take place in Portumna on Thursday 2nd March for the Girls and Friday 3rd March for the Boys. This is for the Senior room only. Transport will not be necessary as we are sharing a bus with another school for both days. More information will follow shortly.

BOOKWEEK

We are looking forward to our annual Book Week – a celebration of books and the pleasure of reading. It takes place from 6th – 10th March. As part of our activities we have planned a trip to Oranmore Library where the staff are ready to welcome us. If your child is not already a member of any library please log on to www.galway.ie and click Joining the library.

We will also have Tommy Baker from Yourmans Puppets in with us on Friday 10th March. He will share his expertise with us and a fun filled day is guaranteed.

Long weekend break

School closed for Bank Holiday Friday 17th March and also Monday 20th March.

Confirmation

6th class pupils will receive their Confirmation on Thursday 23rd March at 11.00a.m.

PANTO NIGHT

Panto night is Thursday 30th March in Labane Hall. The show is called 'Alas in Blunderland' and promises to be a great nights entertainment. Please spread the word as we would like to have a big audience on the night.

Weekly Lotto

We will be holding the Weekly Lotto starting on Thursday next 2nd March. The cost is €10 per family up to Easter. A link will be sent to each family next week. Thank you for your support.

Seachtain na Gaeilge 1 – 17th March

We are doing lots of irish themed activities, games and fun for our Seachtain na Gaeilge celebration.

Food Dudes

The children have been exploring and tasting new fruit and vegetables this week through the National Food Dudes Programme.

Kind regards

Edel Keech
Principal
